CODE OF CONDUCT

Students who attend the Homeschool Prom at the Troy Rec will be held to a high standard of conduct. We expect students to conduct themselves in an honorable manner.

1. Prom is a formal evening and a dress code will be enforced. For girls, this means either a long or short dress. Short dresses must be knee length. Leggings will be permitted under dresses. Slits in long dresses may be no higher than the top of the knee. Low cut backs on dresses must be no lower than the bra strap. No cut outs below the bra strap. No cleavage, nothing see-thru or sheer. For guys, collar shirts with ties, dress pants and sport coats or suits are fine. Of course, tuxes would be great too! Feel free to contact Kelly Snyder at (937)-339-1923 or email at troyrec@bizwoh.rr.com for dress code questions.

2. The following substances are not permitted: tobacco in any form, alcoholic beverages, hallucinogenic drugs, or substances not prescribed by a doctor. Violation will be grounds for immediate removal.

3. Students will be expected to display integrity and self-control during prom events. We expect students to dance in a manner that is honorable and not vulgar. Further, students will be expected to refrain from public displays of affection.
